

Strategic Knowledge Management
Epistemological Approach for KM Realisation

Paper Presenter: Babak Akhgar, Sheffield Hallam University, Prof of Informatics

Paper Authors: Babak Akhgar, Sheffield Hallam University, Prof of Informatics
Mohammad Mosakhan, Tehran University

Corresponding Author: ba.akhgar@gmail.com

Abstract

The paper explores an alternative perspective of knowledge management and puts forward a strategic knowledge management paradigm based on epistemological thinking and processes. With the aid of knowledge elasticity function and value proposition the paper argues that the current KM applications are insufficient for delivering competitive advantage. In conclusion the paper puts forward a visionary research agenda for further exploration of epistemology based KM solutions.

Keywords: Ontology, Epistemology and KM Strategy